

The FBCO APEX Conduct Covenant

I _____, (print student name)

understand that First Baptist Church APEX Student Ministry partners with God & Parents to guide students to Maturity in Jesus Christ. I understand that as a part of a APEX event I will be expected to strive for maturity, especially in the areas of SELF-CONTROL, RESPONSIBILITY, and WISE DECISIONS. Furthermore, I partner with my peers and sponsors to honor God by following the “Covenant.”

- I. I shall Respect & Follow the Instructions of Sponsors / Leaders.
- II. My body shall not leave appropriate boundaries, but shall remain with the group at all times.
- III. My body shall not engage in inappropriate displays of affection.
- IV. I shall Not bring fireworks, weapons, illegal substances, practical joke materials, inappropriate audiovisual equipment.
- V. I shall report any injury immediately to the sponsors / Leaders.
- VI. I shall not trespass on thy neighbor's body, or character, but shall edify at all times.
(Ephesians 4:29)
- VII. I shall strain to know and follow the announced schedule closely.
- VIII. I shall observe all event rules.
- IX. I shall pitch in and help whenever and wherever there is a need.
- X. I shall aim for “Maturity”.

(Participant signature)

(Parent signature)

Violation of the Covenant will result in loss of privileges and/or being sent home at violators expense, at the discretion of sponsors.

Note to Parents: At FBCO, we love students! Our objective is to create environments where students can find God's greatest expressions of freedom. That happens best when everyone knows the boundaries. We've found that when a parents and student sit down and go over these together, they rarely have to be mentioned during our event. Thanks for going over this with your student!